The percentage of the ordinary income distributions paid by Sequoia Fund during 2019 which was derived from U.S. Treasury securities was 2.18%. Such income is exempt from state and local tax in all states. However, many states, including New York and California, allow a tax exemption for a portion of the income earned only if a mutual fund has invested at least 50% of its assets at the end of each quarter of the Fund's fiscal year in U.S. Government securities. The Fund did not meet this strict requirement in 2019. Due to the diversity in state and local tax law, it is recommended that you consult your personal tax adviser as to the applicability of the information provided to your specific situation.

Ordinary income distributions include short term capital gains and dividend distributions.

 During the year ended December 31, 2010, Sequoia Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") paid two distributions, a portion of which were considered to be ordinary dividends for tax purposes. This determination was made based on the tax character of distributions received from portfolio companies of the Fund.

In conjunction with its merger with Biovail Corporation, Valeant Pharmaceuticals International ("Valeant") paid a pre-merger special dividend of $16.77 per share to stockholders of record as of the close of business on September 27, 2010. At the time of the merger, Valeant had indicated that, based upon its estimated calculations, a portion of the dividend would be taxable as an ordinary dividend for U.S. federal tax purposes. Accordingly, the Fund made ordinary dividend distributions to its shareholders based on these estimates. Valeant has subsequently indicated that none of the pre-merger special dividend is taxable as a dividend for U.S. federal tax purposes. As a result, the portion of Fund distributions originally deemed as ordinary dividends have been re-characterized as nontaxable returns of capital. Revised distribution tables are presented above. We strongly suggest that you share this information with your tax advisor.
